We hold these truths to be self-evident

. . . that they are endowed by their Creator . . .

. . . with certain inalienable rights . . .

. . . that among these are life . . .

liberty . . .

. . . and the pursuit of happiness.

Life ...

... The land and the people and the flag — to defend with life itself, if need be, but above all ...

... in friendliness, in hope, in courage ...

... to live for .

STUDENT LIFE

*A nation is made great,
not by its fruitful acres,*

. . . .

. . . but by the men who cultivate them. Lyman Abbott

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer

. . . Let him step to the music he hears, however measured or far away.

Henry David Thoreau

The four cornerstones of character on which the structure of this nation was *built are:

Initiative,
Imagination, Individuality and Independence.*

Capt. Edward V. Rickenbacker

We need not be afraid of the future, for the future will be in our own hands

. . . We shall need courage, energy and determination, but above all,

we shall need faith
— faith in ourselves, in our communities, and in our country.

Thomas E. Dewey

Science and time and necessity have propelled us, the United States, to be the general store for the world, dealers in everything . . .

*. . . Most of all,
merchants for a better way of life.* Lady Bird Johnson

Where life is intense, imagination is intense also.

George Santayana

We still have it in our power to rise above the fears, imagined and real, and to shoulder the great burdens . . .

. . . which destiny has placed upon us.

Helen Keller

Democracy is . . . a living thing — a human thing — compounded of brains . . .

. . . and muscles and heart and soul.

Franklin D. Roosevelt

A man's country is not a certain area of land, but it is a principle; . . .

. . . and patriotism is loyalty to that principle.

George William Curtis

Our America is . . .

. . . Here . . .

. . . is Now . . .

*. . .and beckons
on before us . . .*

Thomas Wolfe

O beautiful for spacious skies, For amber waves of grain . . . America! America! Katherine Lee Bates

Our greatness is built upon our freedom

*. . . is moral,
not material.*

Woodrow Wilson

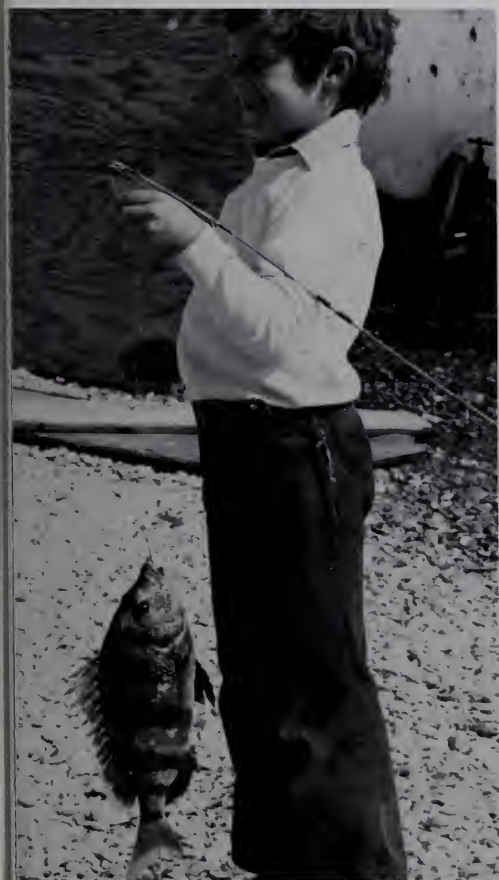

What have you done for liberty? . . .

... If nothing, what can freedom mean to you?

William Jennings Bryan

Proclaim liberty . . .

. . . .

throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof.

PEOPLE

Dr. and Mrs. Arnold R. Kilpatrick

Dr. Arnold R. Kilpatrick had led NSU since 1966, and it had become a thriving university, known widely for its friendly central campus and expanding programs in Shreveport, Fort Polk, and other areas. The constant pressures of duties on the university's president made any relaxing moments such as those pictured on these two pages very precious to him and Mrs. Kilpatrick. She was more than our president's wife — she was NSU's First Lady, too.

College of Business

Headed by Dean David Townsend, the College of Business was basically divided into the two fields of Business Administration and Business Education. Bachelor of Science degrees were awarded in eight curricula, with the Master's offered in three. The purpose of the college was to prepare the student for careers in business, the military, and civic or institutional management.

College of Education

In an effort to prepare well-qualified teachers for the elementary and secondary schools of Louisiana, and to offer services to school systems in a continuous effort to improve the total educational program, the College of Education had grown to become the largest college on the Northwestern campus. Included in the college were the Departments of Behavioral Sciences; Curriculum and Instruction; General Studies; Health, Physical Education and Recreation; Home Economics; Special Education; and the Lab School. Other departments in the University aided the teacher education program by advising students and providing course work in their respective areas.

With the belief that a child's mind is a very important and special thing, the College of Education stressed the development of critical thinking and initiative, and carefully screened all candidates seeking entrance to the teacher education program. Students were also required to demonstrate skill in effective communication and an understanding of professional standards required of quality teachers.

College of Liberal Arts

Encompassing the departments of Art, Languages, Military Science, Music, Social Sciences, Sociology and Social Work, and Speech and Journalism, the College of Liberal Arts was dedicated to extending and broadening the education of students beyond the limits of their chosen careers. Headed by Dean George Stokes, all degree programs were fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The Department of Music is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music.

College of Nursing

The professional nurse recognized the dignity and worth of each human being and was dedicated to the preservation of and promotion of health in all persons. The College of Nursing trained the professional nurse to render quality nursing care and provided the educational experiences necessary.

The program of studies at Northwestern was set up to allow prospective nurses to pursue their freshman and sophomore studies on the Natchitoches campus and complete their junior and senior studies on the Shreveport campus. Agencies with which the College had contractual agreements included hospital, nursing homes, and health units in the area.

College of Science and Technology

Under the direction of Dean Rene Bienvenu, the College of Science and Technology included the departments of Biological Science, Chemistry and Physics, Earth Sciences, Industrial Education and Technology, Mathematics, and Microbiology and Biochemistry.

Northwestern had been recognized for its excellence in pre-professional programs of medicine, and was proud to be the only university in the state to offer a degree program in Radiological Technology.
